Shipwrecked On Malta
The Journey To Rome Ends
Acts 28

Introduction

Staying the three winter months on the tiny island SW of Italy brought about more favorable conditions for Paul to complete his journey to Rome. When he finally arrived in the very capital of the world, it fulfilled the plans he made (Acts 19:21) as well as the Lord's words to him (Acts 23:11). With Paul's 2-year house arrest in Rome, Luke closes his "Second Treatise" that has chronicled the efforts of this dedicated Christian.

Shipwrecked On Malta (28:1-10)

1) What was eventually learned? (v. 1) How were the "castaways" treated? (v. 2)

2) What "extraordinary" thing happened to Paul? (vv. 3-6)

3) What "opportunity" was presented to Paul? (vv. 7-10) How did it work out for the betterment of everyone?

Resuming The Journey To & Arrival At Rome (28:11-31)

4) How did the journey resume? (vv. 11a) Plot the route. (vv. 11b-13) What did Paul do once he arrived in Puteoli? (v. 14)

5) What did the brethren in Rome do when they heard Paul had finally reached Italy? (v. 15; cp. Rom. 1:8-13)

6) What decision was made re: Paul once they arrived in Rome? (v. 16) Three days later, what happened? (vv. 17-20) How did the Jews respond? (vv. 21-22)

7) What did Paul attempt to do when he finally spoke to them? (v. 23) How did it turn out? (v. 24)

8) How did Paul try to further persuade these Jews? (vv. 25-28) From where did he quote? What was his final point? (v. 28)

9) How did the meeting conclude? (v. 29)

10) How does Luke conclude the "Second Treatise?" (vv. 30-31)