

Paul Writes Colossians

When: The winter of A.D. 62 or spring of A.D. 63
From Where: Roman imprisonment (Acts 28:30-31)

Synopsis

- One of four epistles written by Paul while in his first Roman imprisonment
- Most likely, Colossae was not a place Paul had been or labored (2:1)
  - He seems to include the Colossians in the list of those "...who have not personally seen my face"
  - With a high degree of certainty, the origin of the church at Colossae can be attributed to Epaphras (1:3-7; 4:12-13)
- Three times Paul refers to himself as a "prisoner" (4:3, 10, 18)
- This letter was carried from Rome to Colossae by Tychicus, with the help of Onesimus (4:7-9)
  - Tychicus was an Asian...perhaps even from Colossae (Acts 20:4)
- A "companion letter" to Ephesians
  - Written at the same time
  - Also carried by Tychicus (Eph. 6:21-22)
  - Strikingly similar themes...often called "The Twin Epistles"
- Others who are mentioned in the letter...
  - Timothy has joined Paul in Rome (1:1)
  - Aristarchus was Paul's "fellow prisoner" (4:10; cp. Acts 27:2)
  - Archippus was a member of the Colossian church (4:17; cp. Phlm. 2)
  - Mark is identified as "Barnabas' cousin" only here (4:10; cp. Acts 13:5, 13; 15:37-39)
  - Luke is identified as a "physician" only here (4:14)
  - Demas is portrayed as "faithful"...yet, later departs (4:14; cp. Phlm. 24; 2 Tim. 4:10)
  - Onesimus was a Colossian...he was "one of their number" (4:9; cp. Phlm. 8-18)
- An unknown letter is mentioned in 4:16
  - Paul instructed this letter to be read to the church in Laodicea
  - He also wanted the letter coming from Laodicea to be read in Colossae
  - Some have conjectured the letter coming from Laodicea was the Ephesian letter
  - Not knowing really anything about this letter from Laodicea, we can say with certainty that letters were obviously shared among N.T. churches
- The theme => "You are complete in Christ."
  - Thematic statement (2:10)
