Hebrews 13: 1-25

Lesson 22: The Forever Fellowship

1. What are we to let continue? (13:1)
2. What reason is given for encouraging us to remember to entertain strangers? (13:2)
 - What examples from the Old Testament can you cite as instances in which men “unwittingly entertained angels”?
 - 1 Peter 4:9 commands us to be hospitable to one another without what?
3. With what degree of empathy are we to remember the prisoners? (13:3)
4. How should marriage be regarded by all? (13:4)
 - Whom will God judge?
 - Do these individuals honor marriage?
5. What should our conduct be without? (13:5-6)
 - With what should we be content?
 - What promise has God made concerning remaining with us?
 - What may we boldly say?
6. Who were the Hebrew Christians to remember and follow? (13:7)
 - Would this describe both apostles and elders in the first century?
7. Is Jesus always the same? (13:8)
8. What should we not be carried about with? (13:9)
 - It is good that the heart be established with grace but not with what? Why not?
9. Do those who serve the tabernacle have a right to our altar? (13:10)
 - Where were the bodies of the animals offered as sin sacrifices burned under the Old Testament? (13:11; cf. Leviticus 4:12, 21; 16:27)
 - Where did Jesus suffer? (13:12)
 - Where must we go if we are to follow Jesus? (13:13)
 - What should we be willing to bear or endure? (13:13)
 - We do not have a continuing city here on earth, but we seek one to come. Of whom was essentially the same thing said in Hebrews 11:13-16?
10. What sacrifices should we continually offer to God? (13:15-16)
 - By Whom are we to offer these sacrifices?
 - For what purpose have we been made “a holy priesthood”? (1 Peter 2:5)
11. Why should we obey those who rule over us? (13:17)
 - Who should be counted worthy of double honor? (1 Timothy 5:17)
 - What did Paul command the Ephesian elders to do in Acts 20:31?
 - Who were the Hebrews to “greet” according to Hebrews 13:24?
12. What reason does the writer give to encourage the Hebrew Christians to pray for him? (13:18)
13. In Hebrews 13:20-21, what does the writer ask God to do for those to whom he is writing? (cf. Philippians 2:13)
14. What appeal does the writer make to his readers in Hebrews 13:22?
